

17:53:40 From Scientific and Medical Network : Working from within a spiritual perspective, when and how should we intervene, and what are the boundaries?

18:07:29 From Paul: SMN : Working from within a spiritual perspective, when and how should we intervene, and what are the boundaries?

18:11:08 From Verena Davis : Christian Mystic language and understanding is in the realms of nonduality.

18:12:29 From Francis Standish : Can we focus please on our topic?

18:15:27 From Paul: SMN : <https://scientificandmedical.net/groups/subject-interest-groups/subgroups/>

18:27:28 From Linda Carroll : Maybe the term metaphysical would be a more inclusive and transcendent perspective.

18:29:04 From Linda Carroll : We need to move from the horizontal to the vertical dimensions of experience.

18:31:22 From Linda Carroll : Unfortunately the term 'God' 'Religion can carry an immense amount of negativity. How we apply ideas of sanctity and sacredness to our existential lives.

18:31:25 From Tanya : Linda, I agree with you @ vertical. Assuming that what I understand by that is what you mean! :)

18:33:00 From Linda Carroll : The Holy Grail - wounded king - 'What ails thee'?

18:33:33 From Diane S : One of the clues to boundaries maybe: - the words we use!! We need to stop using the words 'blame' and 'fault'. They lead the conversation in a negative direction - no answers down those roads!!

18:33:45 From Sue D. : Francis, Thank you. So nicely stated...

18:35:07 From Linda Carroll : The compassionate heart.

18:38:44 From Linda Carroll : Also within the 'higher' echelons of government and economics and the destructive policies that threaten ALL life on this planet = Intervention, protesting etc is essential.

18:39:01 From Diane S : But being British - we don't stand up and be counted and we call it 'being careful'!!

18:39:59 From Diane S : I felt to put "It ain't what you say, it's the way that you say it"!!! Agree Paul!!

18:45:18 From Francis Standish : "if you try to change someone else, you are asking them to lie to you."

18:47:22 From Judy Hanmer : The important thing is to encourage people to talk about their own values and in listening help them to see where they are going. Often one doesn't know exactly what one believes or wants until one expresses it out loud to someone else.

18:47:35 From Barbara Jikai Gabrys : I'd like to come in as well but don't seem to have a yellow hand function...

18:48:30 From Linda Carroll : Yes Judy, I agree, our understanding of where another human is at any one time is essential and we act accordingly - appropriately and with Empathy.

18:48:33 From Judy Hanmer : Go to reactions at the bottom of the screen.

18:48:49 From Barbara Jikai Gabrys : Thank you!

18:49:31 From Jackie : Dianu said!e I just love all y

18:50:33 From Diane S : We are all each other's therapists (or we can be) xxx

18:52:54 From judithcrichton : Lovely Gerri thank you

18:54:10 From Jackie : We need to have all the correct facts before we jump in too quickly. If incorrect info has been spread (particularly in group situations then damage can be done. difficult to unpick afterwards. (speaking from personal experience!)

18:54:12 From Gerri : The Phenomenological Method (Edmund Husserl) - Rule of Epoche, Rule of Description and Rule of horizontalisation (I will look up a link to share)

18:55:26 From judithcrichton : Lovely Marilyn I work with horses and autistic kids here in Canada as a volunteer ... how wonderful your work has been 18:56:22 From Linda Carroll : It's so important to validate someone's experience.

18:56:36 From Sylvia Clare : bye everyone - off to led my group

18:57:17 From Diane S : If only we could stand for just one moment in each other's shoes!! Bob Dylan, "I wish that for just one time, you could stand inside my shoes".....

18:57:31 From Francis Standish : I think it's possible to come from a place where one feels troubled/concerned, rather than a place of being right. Especially when we recall Rumi: Between the idea of rightdoing or wrongdoing there is a field: i'll meet you there.

18:58:28 From Diane S : Absolutely Francis!! Therefore come from a place of caring!!

18:58:48 From Diane S : and when you speak/intervene, speak with love!!

19:01:00 From Francis Standish : Are you Diane telling me what to do?!

19:01:58 From Gerri :

19:06:46 From Monika Kaniewska : Thank you Judith, it was great!

19:07:36 From Verena Davis : Apologies that I have to leave your company and discussion and filled with many thoughts which have been discussion.....is there not a spiritual dimension to everything.

19:07:40 From Diane S : It's a pleasure! (An example of what I was saying - better to speak than to say nothing.) Apologies again if it was misunderstood but..... I will add - I have a saying I've picked up from experience: It's better to go over the top than not to get off the ground!

19:07:58 From Diane S : Wonderful story Judith!!! Thank you!!

19:08:33 From Iya Whiteley : Thank you, Judith =) very meaningful and timely

19:12:16 From Judy Hanmer : Being a member of a religious group does not necessarily mean that one cannot understand someone else's spiritual point of view!

19:12:47 From Barbara Jikai Gabrys : So true, Judith

19:15:05 From Francis Standish : Was Jesus' "aggression" also not 'righteous anger'?

19:15:50 From Linda Carroll : Yes, I would see it as 'Righteous Anger'. Thank you.

19:15:50 From Francis Standish : It showed his human dimension.

19:17:58 From Yohance Osborne : Agreed Rowena. No attachments, only pure intentions.

19:21:29 From Judy Hanmer : sorry, I have to go to another group. See you next week.

19:23:54 From judithcrichton : Very interesting Marilyn ...

19:28:56 From Barbara Jikai Gabrys : I wonder about medical doctors - they ought to be compassionate but I'd rather that they act if I need their help then commiserate with me. Is this subject ever tackled in medical schools, I wonder?

19:29:20 From Rowena Fairbairn : Therapists often attract clients who can benefit from therapist's personal experiences in their own life.

19:29:59 From Linda Carroll : Yes, just because they cannot express their feelings with speech - we treat other creatures so abominably - Speciesism.

19:30:29 From Diane S : It makes me wonder whether the whale that landed came to tell us a message. I wonder if people have seen My Octopus Teacher? Brilliant!!!

19:31:00 From Tanya : Thank you so much for all your contributions, both spoken and written 😊

19:32:15 From Diane S : A lovely group - lovely session!! 😊
